UNESCO Center for Peace Coordinator for Malaysia

Dear Sir/Madam,

Following my productive meeting with Ms. Jaya Devi Sreeniwasan, I am happy to write this letter in my capacity as the Chairman of the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO Clubs, Centers & Associations & Executive Director of the Washington, D.C. based UNESCO Center for Peace, to inform you that Ms. Jaya Devi Sreeniwasan is hereby appointed as the UNESCO Center for Peace Coordinator for Malaysia. This appointment is effective immediately for the period of 3 (three) years.

As such, she will be serving as the point person between the U.S. Federation of UNESCO Clubs, Centers & Associations and the Malaysian sister Federation. Her other duties will include promoting and coordinating UNESCO Center for Peace programs and activities in France and other relevant countries such as the upcoming 2020 Annual International Model United Summer Program set for July 19 – August 1, 2020 and facilitate the participation of Malaysian students.

As the Country Coordinator, she will be invited once a year to attend the International coordinator’s meeting usually held during the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (CSW66) at the United Nations Headquarter following the International Women Day on March 08. CSW is the principal global intergovernmental body, exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women. The CSW is instrumental in promoting women’s rights, documenting the reality of women’s lives throughout the world, and shaping global standards on gender equality and the empowerment of women through education. Should you any question or concern, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone +1 240.498.3557 or by email gpdjoken@unescocenterforpeace.org

You may regard this selection with genuine pride and testimony to the outstanding job she has done over the years in International Education. As you know, the work undertaken by our Center is of utmost importance and greatly promotes UNESCO core goal of planting the seed of peace in the minds of our students. By so doing, we contribute to the creation of sustainable development and intercultural dialogue by promoting collaboration among nations through education, science, culture and communication.”

Sincerely,

Guy Djoken

Executive Director UNESCO Center for Peace

President U.S. Federation of UNESCO Clubs, Centers & Associations

Permanent Representative of the World Federation of UNESCO Clubs Centers and Associations to ECOSOC/UN DPI
